

How to retrieve the Point of Sale invoice for each day of transaction in the POS?

This option will retrieve details of the invoices. The POS invoices are generated automatically by the system after each day closing of the cashier. It sums all the tickets into one invoice that contains products, payments and stock movement information.

Depending on the user rights, the user can view/post the POS invoices. They cannot be re-opened as they are directly linked to the POS closing data.