How to use the Reward Points Register in POS?

The purpose of this register is to allow the listing of customer reward points and make amendments to it e.g Adding additional points, Used and Available by customer and by dates. The listings displays the complete rewards points details.