Accounts

Account Masters

This is where all the masters for the account module are defined.

Account Transactions

This is the part of the application where all accounting/ financial transactions are entered, either manually or through the integration with the other application modules

Account Reports

This contains all the reports and the registers to view the output of the transactions that have been entered