

Inventory Reports

Warehouse Register

In the Warehouse Register the user able to view and track products availability and movements within a warehouse.

Locator Register

Locator Register allows the user to view and track products status and location within a warehouse, for example products at the warehouse staging area, or at product assembly area.

Inventory Ageing Register

The Inventory Ageing Register allows the user to view the duration of the inventory, so as to make a decision on keeping the inventory in stock.

Product Register

In the Product Register the user able to view and track individual product's transactions history, quantity, and values.

Product Ageing Register

The Product Ageing Register allows the user to view the stock inventory in a three dimensional view, from the number of days in stock, stock value, and stock ageing.

Inventory Lot Register

The Inventory Lot Register allows user to view transactions of incoming stock of a warehouse.

Reserved Stock Register

Reserved Stock Register allows user to view transactions of reserved stock of a warehouse / product brand

Packing Register View

Packing Register View allows user to view summary of the packing record of a warehouse.

Product Analysis

Product Analysis allows user to analyse products' months on hand (M.O.H), average sales and inventory turnover data.

Inventory Reports

In Inventory Reports view, user is able to generate general and analysis reports of stock inventory, products, and warehouse.

